

COONEY FARE BILL NOT DEAD; FIGHT HAS JUST BEGUN---WAGNER

Assemblyman Sure Railroad Committee Will Report Measure Again, Despite Effort of Bosses and Lobby to Have It Strangled.

Here are the members of Assembly from Greater New York who voted against the bill for a five-cent fare to Coney Island. Remember the names: BENNETT, FRANCIS, C. F. MURPHY, COLME, COLE, W. R. ROBINSON, WEBER, SURPLESS, Voss.

ALBANY, Feb. 19.—The fight for the Coney Island Five-Cent Fare bill is not ended. According to Assemblyman Wagner, who introduced the measure, it has only just begun. Although the Assembly by a vote of 82 to 63 sent the bill back to the Railroads Committee yesterday, and this was generally regarded as its "finish," Wagner has carefully canvassed the committee, and believes a majority will vote to report the bill a second time. He gave The Evening World the following statement:

"I was somewhat surprised that the Republican leaders in the Assembly made the question of the recommitment of the Five-Cent Fare bill a party question, and thus compelled members who were in sympathy with me in my fight for a reduced rate of fare for our poor in New York to vote against me.

"Let there be no misunderstanding as to the precise situation. The bill is simply recommitment for another hearing. I shall demand an immediate hearing by the committee. My fight for the people will continue unswervingly and I feel confident from my talk with the committee and because of the justice of the case that the bill will be reported again and passed.

Can't Change Bill.
"I believe I proved conclusively to the Assembly in my address that the Public Service Commission cannot do what I propose to do by my bill. My argument on that proposition remains unanswered, and for that reason the Legislature ought to pass the bill at once. "While no doubt the motion to recommit was prompted by a desire on the part of some leaders to kill the bill, yet I want to assure the people of New York that the gentlemen interested in killing the measure will not be successful in their attempt. "My fight has just begun and it will continue until the Legislature properly reflects the will of the people by passing this bill.

In this effort I invoke the aid of all fair-minded men in New York. Until a five-cent fare is a reality, let them zealously watch the action of their representatives in Albany."

Watch These Men.
The five-cent men from New York City who voted to send the bill back to committee against the interests of the people are: Bennett, Colme, Francis, McCabe, C. F. Murphy, W. R. Robinson, Surpless, Voss and Weber. WILLIAM M. BENNETT comes from the Fifteenth Manhattan District. This is his first term at Albany. He is known chiefly because of the large number of bills he has introduced. He poses as an expert on tax and banking matters. Most of his legislation has taken this trend. He has also fathered a number of real estate bills. He is youthful in appearance and is ambitious to make a record. His speech on the Five-Cent Fare bill followed the argument of the railroad attorneys before the Committee on Railroads.

WILLIAM T. COLME represents the Eleventh District of Brooklyn. He is serving his third term in the Lower House. He is engaged in the business of selling patents and is one of Woodruff's general committeemen in Kings.

Help Wanted To-Day!

As advertised for in The Morning World's Want Directory.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 19, 1908.

Addressers	1	Folders	2
Artists	17	Housewives	27
Bakers	2	Horsemen	80
Barbers	3	Ironers	23
Bookbinders	2	Janitors	16
Bookkeepers	7	Joiners	3
Boys	35	Machinists	3
Brokers	1	Manicurists	2
Butchers	5	Miliners	1
Cabinet-Makers	2	Nurses	13
Carpenters	15	Operators	20
Cashiers	4	Painters	7
Chambermaids	22	Printers	3
Chefs	3	Porters	3
Chauffeurs	2	Pressers	6
Collectors	2	Prooferers	2
Commissioners	1	Salesladies	10
Cooks (Male)	8	Sailors	20
Cooks (Female)	15	Skirt Hands	2
Coopers	1	Sleeve Hands	2
Cutters	10	Soldiers	2
Days Work	1	Stenographers	1
Dressmakers	12	Stenographers (F)	1
Dentists	1	Stenographers (M)	1
Dishwashers	7	Tailors	6
Drivers	6	Trimmers	8
Druggists	1	Typewriters	1
Elevator Runners	1	Varnishers	1
Embroiderers	1	Waiters	14
Engineers	6	Watchmen	1
Farm Hands	1	Miscellaneous	273
Finishers	1
Firmen	1
Total	849

The World printed 849 Help Ads. today, 425 more than all other New York papers combined.

Stop Knocking! These Nickel-a-Strap Stunts May Be Making Athletes of Puny New Yorkers

Managers of the Metropolitan Traction Systems Say the Public Enjoys Straphanging, Crowding and Other Outrages, and the Public Utilities Commission Seems Ready to Believe Them.

COURT SCORES VOS, WHO TRAPPED DELANEY'S WIFE

Too Contemptible to Associate With Decent Persons, Justice Truax Says.

Walter Vos, when examined before Justice Truax today in the suit and counter suit for separation between Dena Delaney and his wife, Sarah C. Delaney, admitted that he had devised a trap for the downfall of his friend's young wife. He did not get very far in his admissions, however, before the Supreme Court Justice began to bail.

As Shamed of His Story.

Asked the direct question about his relations with Mrs. Delaney, Vos at first declined to answer on the ground that it might tend to disgrace and degrade him, but finally he told the whole story, just as Delaney told it, and how Delaney, Griffin and Hirsch, hidden by him in a closet, broke in and caught him and Mrs. Delaney in a compromising situation.

Vos delivered his story in a hesitating, half-hearted way, and in faint tones. "So, you were friendly enough with Delaney to tell him these things and did not feel enough degraded to make you hesitate in sending him a telegram to come back from Florida and you would arrange a trap so that he could witness your relations with his wife?" asked Justice Truax, severely.

"I don't you feel contemptible for it?" Vos made no answer.

"Don't you feel now that you are the sort of man that no decent person would associate with? Answer?" thundered the Justice.

Vos answered in a faint affirmative. "That's all," said the Justice. Vos was resumed by the lawyer.

WOMEN CROWD STATE CAPITAL TO DEMAND BALLOT

But Suffragettes Met Opponents in Petticoats at Hearing Before Hughes.

ALBANY, Feb. 19.—Women of all ages, sizes, complexions and degrees of millinery and dressmaking display mingled with race track followers, ministers, politicians and the generally curious crowd about the Legislative corridors this afternoon to attend the hearing on the proposed constitutional amendment, which would strike the limiting word "male" from the constitutional provision regarding the right to vote.

This hearing was in interest with that on the race track bills, and was held in the Senate Chamber, while the racing question was being threshed out in the Assembly.

The suffragettes by no means had it all their own way, for a strong delegation of women from all parts of the State was present in opposition to the woman suffrage proposition. Later in the afternoon the women of both sides crowded the Executive Chamber to present their arguments pro and contra to Gov. Hughes.

The speakers for the proposed amendment included Mrs. Mary E. Craigie, Brooklyn; Mrs. R. J. Van Valkenburg, Albany; Dr. Lavina B. Davis, Oneida; Mrs. H. B. Ford, Canastota; Mrs. Madeleine Nathan, New York; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Batch, New York; Mrs. Belle De Haven, New York; Miss Anna F. Miller, Geneva; Mrs. George H. Lewis, Buffalo; Mrs. Henry T. Ward, New York; Miss Julie R. Jenney, Syracuse; Mrs. Frank D. Sills, Buffalo; Mrs. Harry H. Hurlbut, New York; Miss Caroline Loxow, New York; Miss Harriet May Smith, Syracuse; Mrs. Annie Garlin Spence, New York.

TWO GOVERNMENTS WANT TO KNOW IN CALDWELL CASE

His Commitment to Insane Asylum Arouses Suspicion of Officials.

That the United States and English Government officials regard the sudden commitment to the insane asylum of Robert Caldwell, the "great American affidavit maker," and Drue witness, with suspicion was shown this afternoon when the case came before United States Commissioner Alexander.

W. C. Cobell, counsel for Caldwell, who is wanted in England for perjury, presented a certificate by Dr. H. C. Evans, Assistant Superintendent of the Manhattan State Insane Asylum, on Ward's Island, that Caldwell was confined there as insane on a commitment signed by Justice Clark, of the Richmond County Supreme Court, on the application of Georgiana M. W. Caldwell, a daughter, with whom he lived.

Lawyer Cobell said his client was in the asylum and could not appear. "Did you give notice of your proposed action?" asked Commissioner Alexander. "The first I saw of it was in the newspapers."

"We were not notified of given an opportunity of appearing," said Mr. Fox, representing the British Government. Mr. Cobell said he had spoken to the United States Judge Hough about the commitment before the proceedings were instituted.

HEGEMAN TO BE ARRESTED TO TEST LAW ON FORGERY

Liability of Corporation Head for Statements to Go to Highest Court.

In order to settle definitely in the highest court a point of law concerning the liability of a president of a corporation for statements made in documents compiled by subordinates, Justice J. H. Hegeman, President of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, will formally submit himself to arrest to-morrow. Arrangements for the arrest and the proceedings to follow were completed today by Assistant District Attorney Kresel and De Lancey Nicoll, the latter acting for Mr. Hegeman.

The Grand Jury returned seven indictments, charging forgery, against Mr. Hegeman, last May. They were based upon statements signed by him made in a report to the State Superintendent of Insurance, Justice Dowling dismissed the indictments upon motion of former Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, of counsel for Mr. Hegeman, on the ground that he was not personally responsible for statements that he did not personally prepare.

The decision was not satisfactory to District Attorney Jerome, nor did it entirely satisfy Judge O'Brien, because it did not go far enough. Consequently, an agreement has been reached by which Mr. Hegeman will be arrested in order to test the question.

He will be arraigned in Centre Street Police Court to-morrow and formally charged with forgery. When he immediately brings before the court proceedings which the District Attorney will conduct. In the meantime, Mr. Hegeman will be held in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.

HEAVY SENTENCE FOR GAMBLER SCARES OTHERS

East Siders Raided by Jerome's Sleuths Dazed by Term for Goldstein.

Louis Goldstein, the first of the big batch of gamblers rounded up in the raids of Detective Reardon, of the District-Attorney's office, to be sentenced, was sent to the penitentiary for eleven months to-day by Justice Dowling, in the Supreme Court, and ordered to pay a fine of $500. Goldstein's place, at No. 73 Ludlow street, was one of the most notorious resorts on the east side.

The news of Goldstein's sentence spread quickly to the twenty-seven other gamblers under indictment. It created consternation among them, as they had been given to understand that they were to be let off with fines of $25 on a misdemeanor charge if they pleaded guilty. When it was learned that it was due to Goldstein's reluctance to plead guilty last Monday that the heavy sentence was imposed there was a rush to plead.

On Monday Goldstein and several others, who had agreed to plead as the District-Attorney's office desired, suddenly changed their minds. An investigation resulted in a sharp reproof for Capt. Buchanan, formerly commander of the Eldridge street police station.

Attorney Barra, for Goldstein, today asserted that undue coercion had been used on his client. "If I give you fifteen minutes to make an affidavit to that effect," said Judge Dowling.

Barra, after consulting Goldstein, announced that he would withdraw his remark. By way of demonstrating that the row between the Police Department and the District-Attorney's office was still on, Assistant District Attorney Garvan asked the court to have it spread on the records that he had three times asked the police for Goldstein's criminal record, but had obtained no response.

Fourteen Plead Guilty.
Fourteen indicted gamblers, fearful of Goldstein's fate, pleaded guilty when arraigned this afternoon and each was let off with a $25 fine. During the proceedings, Assistant District Attorney Garvan was informed that a Central office man out in the corridor was telling the gamblers that four others would not stand because the raids were made by County Agents, and not by the police. He had approached any of the indicted men with advice.

Mr. Garvan told Justice Dowling what he had heard and the Court ordered the Central office man brought in. In the meantime, the Central office man was escorted into the courtroom by two Jerome detectives. He denied under oath that he had approached any of the indicted men with advice.

"What are you doing away from Headquarters?" Justice Dowling asked. "I am supposed to be in Brooklyn on private business for the Commissioner," replied the man, who was then taken to see Sergt. Donohue, who is attached to Commissioner Hanson's office.

NOT A PARTICLE OF SKIN ON BODY

Worst Case of Eczema Doctor Had Seen in 40 Years—For Six Months Father Expected His Baby to Die—Blood Oozed Out All Over Her Body—Had to Be Wrapped in Silk and Carried on a Pillow—Now She is Perfectly Cured.

"My little girl was born two weeks before her time and my wife died four hours after the birth of our child and I had to raise the baby on artificial foods. Six months later she was so badly afflicted with Eczema that I had two doctors in attendance. I used every known remedy to relieve her suffering, for it was terrible to witness. Dr. C. gave her up and then I went to C. F. E. and got Dr. J. and he and Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment saved her life. I recommended the Cuticura Remedies, or said we were right in making use of them. As nearly as I can remember, we used eight cases of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment; but you must take into consideration that hers was an exceptional case, for an old and good doctor said that it was the worst case that had come to him in forty years. I have always hinged on Cuticura Soap to keep her skin soft and to give her a pure complexion. James J. Smith, Wood and Metal Pattern Maker, Box 234, Buena Vista, Va., Oct. 14 and 22, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humid and Itchy Skin Disease. Cuticura Soap (25c) to cleanse the skin. Cuticura Ointment (25c) to treat the Eczema. Cuticura Remedies (25c) to cure the disease. Cuticura Remedies (25c) to cure the disease. Cuticura Remedies (25c) to cure the disease.

CANDY
Specials For This Thursday
CHOCOLATE AND VANILLA COCONUT CREAM CUTS..... POUND 10c
SPECIAL ASSORTED CHOCOLATES (20 kinds) POUND 19c
CHOCOLATE COVERED CAMELS..... POUND 25c

JAMES R. KEANE & CO.
FOR TWENTY YEARS the house of KEANE & CO. has been engaged in the FURNITURE AND CARPET business. By a most LIBERAL CREDIT SYSTEM, coupled with moderate prices, we have made housefurnishing an easy matter. We employ a person of small means to come into immediate possession and enjoyment of every desired article. Thousands of satisfied customers in City and Suburb can attest to the excellence of our service and our square dealings.

$1 WEEKLY.
WRITE FOR NEW BOOKLET. OPEN SAT. EVENINGS UNTIL 10.
3rd AVE. bet 77th & 78th STS.

MILLER AND HYAMS
65-71 SMITH ST. COR. STATE ST. THREE BLOCKS FROM FULTON ST. BROOKLYN.
WE FURNISH A HOME COMPLETE
DON'T WAIT--BUY NOW!
AVAIL YOURSELF OF OUR SPECIAL TERMS
$25.00 WORTH, $2.00 DOWN
50.00 " 3.50 "
75.00 " 5.00 "
100.00 " 7.50 "

DESIRABLE CREDIT
DAMONDS
ONE PRICE
(Cash or Credit)
Finest stock in city. Business strictly confidential. No money advanced. Reference required. Call or write for Ill. Catalogue No. 44
37 Maiden Lane, N.Y.
Branch: 289 Fulton St., Brooklyn.

L.W. SWEET & CO.
NAIL BITTING permanently cured with WOOD-BITE or money refunded. Sent on receipt of 25c. P. H. REIFELBERG, Albany, N.Y.
No Extra Charge for It.
Advertisement for The World may be left at any American District Messenger Office in the city until 5 P. M.